Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) Responsive to communication(s) filed on 04 November 2005.
- 2a) This action is FINAL. 2b) This action is non-final.
- 3) Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

Disposition of Claims

- 4) Claim(s) 1-36 is/are pending in the application.
 - 4a) Of the above claim(s) 1-18 is/are withdrawn from consideration.
- 5) Claim(s) _____ is/are allowed.
- 6) Claim(s) 19-36 is/are rejected.
- 7) Claim(s) _____ is/are objected to.
- 8) Claim(s) _____ are subject to restriction and/or election requirement.

Application Papers

- 9) The specification is objected to by the Examiner.
- 10) The drawing(s) filed on _____ is/are: a) accepted or b) objected to by the Examiner.
Applicant may not request that any objection to the drawing(s) be held in abeyance. See 37 CFR 1.85(a).
Replacement drawing sheet(s) including the correction is required if the drawing(s) is objected to. See 37 CFR 1.121(d).
- 11) The oath or declaration is objected to by the Examiner. Note the attached Office Action or form PTO-152.

Priority under 35 U.S.C. § 119

- 12) Acknowledgment is made of a claim for foreign priority under 35 U.S.C. § 119(a)-(d) or (f).
 - a) All b) Some * c) None of:
 1. Certified copies of the priority documents have been received.
 2. Certified copies of the priority documents have been received in Application No. _____.
 3. Copies of the certified copies of the priority documents have been received in this National Stage application from the International Bureau (PCT Rule 17.2(a)).

* See the attached detailed Office action for a list of the certified copies not received.

DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

Responsive to Amendment filed on November 4, 2005. Claims 1-18 have been canceled. Claims 19-36 are new. Claims 19-36 are now pending further examination.

Oath/Declaration

1. The oath or declaration is defective. A new oath or declaration in compliance with 37 CFR 1.67(a) identifying this application-by-application number and filing date is required. See MPEP §§ 602.01 and 602.02.

The oath or declaration is defective because none of the inventors have signed the oath.

Specification

2. Applicant is reminded of the proper content of an abstract of the disclosure.

A patent abstract is a concise statement of the technical disclosure of the patent and should include that which is new in the art to which the invention pertains. If the patent is of a basic nature, the entire technical disclosure may be new in the art, and the abstract should be directed to the entire disclosure. If the patent is in the nature of an improvement in an old apparatus, process, product, or composition, the abstract should include the technical disclosure of the improvement. In certain patents, particularly those for compounds and compositions, wherein the process for making and/or the use thereof are not obvious, the abstract should set forth a process for making and/or use thereof. If the new technical disclosure involves modifications or alternatives, the abstract should mention by way of example the preferred modification or alternative.

The abstract should not refer to purported merits or speculative applications of the invention and should not compare the invention with the prior art.

Where applicable, the abstract should include the following:

- (1) if a machine or apparatus, its organization and operation;
- (2) if an article, its method of making;
- (3) if a chemical compound, its identity and use;
- (4) if a mixture, its ingredients;
- (5) if a process, the steps.

Extensive mechanical and design details of apparatus should not be given.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter, which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 19-36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 19, it is unclear if “a terminal” in line 2 is referring to “a terminal” previously presented in line 1. If so, any further reference to “a terminal” must be preceded by –said- or –the- .

In claim 19, there is insufficient antecedent basis for the following limitations : “the communication line” in line 4, “ the new components” in line 14, “the false components” in line 16, “ the respective secondary responses” in line 20, “secondary virtual requests” in line 22, and “ the terminal agent” in line 23.

In claim 19 and 29, the terms “as original requests”, “as new navigation components”, and “as respective primary responses” are indefinite because its not clear what these terms are referring to. The claims appear to be used to name new features of the invention. However, what exactly these terms are referring is not clear. For example, the term “original requests” in selecting from the identified data packets current requests for new connections as original requests” can be interpreted as intending to refer to current requests or new connections. The claims must be rewritten in better form to clearly describe the Applicant’s invention.

In claim 29, there is insufficient antecedent basis for the following limitations: “the communication line” in line 4, “the new navigation components” in line 6, “ the new components” in line 12, “the false components” in line 14, “the respective secondary responses” in line 19, and “ the terminal agent” in line 23.

In claim 20, there is insufficient antecedent basis for the following limitations: “ any respective original responses” in line 2, “ local cache of terminal agent” in line 4, “the respective places” in line 8, “such data” in line 7, and “agent terminal” in line 8.

In claim 21, there is insufficient antecedent basis for the following limitations: “ the communication” in line 1.

In claim 21, line 3, it is not clear what “data” the claim is referring to.

In claim 22, there is insufficient antecedent basis for the following limitations: “identified data packets data” in line 2, “message data” in line 3.

In claim 22, it is not clear if the term “ a terminal agent “ is a new feature or if this is referring to previously introduced –terminal agent-. If so, any further reference to “a terminal agent” must be preceded by –said- or –the-

In claim 23, there is insufficient antecedent basis for the following limitations: “the network” in line 1, “ the terminal” in line 2, and “the extended communication line” in line 2.

In claims 24, there is insufficient antecedent basis for the following limitation: “the communication line” in line 1.

In claim 25, there is insufficient antecedent basis for the following limitations” the network” in line 1 and “the terminal” in line 2.

In claims 26-28, the term “ an IP address” is indefinite because its not clear if this term is referring to the same “an IP address” previously presented in claim 19. If so, any further reference to “an IP address” from preceding claims must be preceded by –said- or –the- .

In claim 28, the term “an IP address are addresses” is indefinite because it is not clear what is meant by this term.

In claim 26, it is not clear what is meant and what the significance of the acronym “ISP”.

Claims 30-36 contain similar issues and also depend on rejected claim 29, therefore are rejected under the same rationale.

The Examiner respectfully requests that the Applicant carefully review the claims for other 112 issues not cited above in order to better clarify the Applicant’s invention.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).
